Bee County Law Enforcement Center: Mechanical Engineer Procurement and Scope of Services:

1. The responding firms will provide the resumes of the professionals who will be performing the requisite services noted below along with an organizational chart indicating each professional's prescribed role in the assignment and their anticipated percentage of participation in each phase of the project. Selection of the firm will be based on these qualifications.

2. Perform forensic review of plans, specifications, requests for information (RFI's), Architect's/Engineer's supplemental information (ASI's/Bulletins), shop drawings, and submittals related to the mechanical systems within the aforementioned projects and prepare a written report of the findings indicating any errors or omissions within such documents. Services will be rendered on a time and materials basis based on a mutually agreeable not to exceed fee billed on a monthly basis.

3. Provide design services for any and all remediation or replacement which may be required as the result of the forensic review noted in 2. above. This would also include bidding support, construction administration and observation and close-out, should design services be determined to be necessary. The firm will also support all test and balance and commissioning services required to comply with the Texas Commission on Jail Standards inspection requirements. Services for this phase will be rendered on a lump-sum basis to include all ancillary expenses once the scope is defined by mutual agreement between the parties billed on a percentage complete basis at the end of each month. A design schedule will be provided in conjunction with the lump-sum fee which will include current hourly rates for each assigned position who will work on the project.

4. Provide mediation/litigation support for any and all claims that arise out of the forensic review noted in 2. above, against the parties the County elects to pursue for financial compensation, which include BSW Architects and Turner Construction Co. and their respective sub consultant MD Engineering, and subcontractors Arrowhead Mechanical and Climatec. These services will be rendered on a time and materials basis based on mutually agreeable hourly rates billed on a monthly basis.
