To Whom It May Concern:

The Bee County Court has updated its procedures in light of the recent Supreme Court Emergency Order 36 to the following:

- Masks must continue to be worn while in all courthouses and courtrooms and current CDC guidelines for social distancing followed.
- Until April 5, 2021 all Court hearings will continue via Zoom (special requests will always be considered).
- Beginning Monday, April 5th, both Civil and Criminal Dockets will resume in-person at the Bee County Courthouse, provided, however, that appearances by Zoom will be allowed, on a case-by-case basis, upon written request received by the Court at least 5-days in advance of the hearing date made the subject of the request AND upon receipt of written acknowledgment from the Court.

The Bee County Court will continue to follow and enforce the provisions of all Supreme Court orders and all orders issued by our Local Administrative Judge.

Very truly yours,

/s/ George P. Morrill III
