

Mission Statement

The Bee County Expo Center exists to service entertainment, recreational, educational and economic development to Bee County by providing a venue for worthwhile planned effective and efficient activities.

BEE COUNTY - BEEVILLE

Planning big events can be scary. As a former Event Coordinator, I have many references you can utilize to make your event organized and fun! I am happy to give you ideas, let you know what has worked in the past and steer you in the right direction. We're the only venue that offers this so call me, stop by, or set an appointment today! You'll be surprised how easy I can make this for you!
